Global Women's Mentoring Program

Description:

FORTUNE Most Powerful Women Summit and the U.S. State Department established the Global Women's Mentoring Partnership in May 2006. This public-private partnership places talented, emerging women leaders from all over the world in mentoring programs with FORTUNE's Most Powerful Women Leaders.

The program will take place April 22 through May 16, 2013 and includes a four-day orientation and leadership and skills training in Washington, DC, where the participants meet with senior women in government, academia and business. The international participants are then paired with one of FORTUNE's Most Powerful Women Leaders for an approximately two-week mentorship assignment in cities across the United States and a two-day communications training and debriefing in New York City.

During the two weeks, American and international participants work together in mentoring relationships to share the skills and experiences necessary for strengthening women's leadership. Each participant will have the opportunity to shadow a senior executive and engage in activities specifically designed by the company to meet the needs and interests of the participant. The program provides participants with unique opportunities to develop their management and business skills while gaining experience in the U.S. business and non-profit environment.

Eligibility:

Emerging self-motivated women leaders in the business and non-profit sectors between the ages of 25 and 43 with a very good command of English. Women who run their own businesses, work in the middle/middle-upper management of a non-U.S.-based corporation or non-profit organization, or women who run business associations, foundations or non-governmental organizations.
